CUBA TRIP BIO

Hello! My name is Thina Ritter. My family and I have been attending LCBC since September. Both my daughter, Mateaka, and I will be a part of the short-term missions trip to Cuba. As a child, I felt like I was the mission as I grew up often not knowing where my next meal would come from. I took short term missions training at Ambrose University and have since led two missions trips. The first was through Seeds International where we performed Christian based assemblies in the public schools of Barbados. The second was Dorie's Promise, where we did a lot of humanitarian projects and served at an orphanage in Guatemala. My prayer request is regarding the language barrier we may experience in Cuba. My love language is "Words of Affection" and I am trusting God to help me find other ways to express His love to those we serve in Cuba, when I can't use my words. Thank you for your prayers and support!
