NEWS FROM GULL LAKE CAMP

Staff are arriving this weekend and the first campers arrive on Friday, June 23rd. Pray for the staff, that they would lead well and that all of their words and actions would point to Christ. Pray for humility, strength, trust, and compassion. Pray for the 1000+ campers that are coming this summer, that they would encounter the living God. There are 25 LTDs signed up for level one this year.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

September 1-2 – Family Camp at Camp St. Basil
September 8-9 – new photo directory pictures will be taken
November 3 – Annual Thanksgiving Banquet at Calmar Hall
November 9-16 – Cuba Missions Trip

CUBA MISSIONS TRIP

Next Sunday, June 25, following the morning service, support the Cuba team as they have coffee and a bake sale to raise funds. If you have a favorite dessert you would like to donate to the cause, talk to Pastor Dean.

CUBA TRIP BIO

Trinity Miller

I am 17 years old and attend the Leduc Composite High School. I teach Sunday School to the Kindergarten class here at the church, and work as a hostess at the Whitespot restaurant in Leduc. I enjoy athletics and fitness, especially Volleyball. I have been looking forward to going on a Missions trip and sharing my Faith for as long as I can remember. My hope is to make friendships and relationships that will have an eternal difference in the lives of the Cuban people we encounter by sharing my own experiences of how Jesus is working in my life.
